

Biscuits, Boxes, and Combs

A historical map of the North End of Boston, Massachusetts, showing a grid of streets and various industrial and commercial sites. The map is color-coded with tan for buildings, grey for streets, light green for Market Square, and light blue for the waterfront. A white box at the top contains the title. Several labels with black lines pointing to specific locations are overlaid on the map. Street names are printed in small grey text along the street lines.
